WEDNESDAY, NOV. 3, 1920

It just wasn't Wilson—that's all.

Get ready now, Mr. Hartness, for that new Vermont program.

Well, if the women did it, they certainly did a thorough job of it.

The Democrats are not so Cox sure about the Wilson League of Nations.

It looks as if St. Johnsbury thought it was safe to bank on Gilber Woods for town representative.

There are a whole lot of fellows who have gone into the lumber business and taken to the tall timber.

A good clean record of service

"We Have With Us This Week—"

New England States' Vote

MAINE GIVES HARDING PLURALITY OF 76,333
PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 3.—In a total vote of 16,000 less than that cast in the State election in September, Maine gave Harding a plurality of 76,333 over Cox, 11,000 more than the plurality given Parkhurst for governor.

REPUBLICANS AGAIN SUPREME IN NEW HAMPSHIRE
MANCHESTER, N.H., Nov. 3.—New Hampshire which four years ago went to Wilson by the narrow margin of 56 votes returned to the Republican column yesterday with a plurality of approximately 50,000 for Harding. Senator Moses and Congressman Burroughs and Wason, all Republicans were re-elected by large pluralities and Albert O. Brown, Republican was elected governor. The vote with 45 precincts missing was 79,677 for Harding and 51,518 for Cox; 29,132 for Brown and 52,012 for Charles Titus; 75,012 for Moses and 54,591 for Stevens.

VERMONT BREAKS ALL REPUBLICAN RECORDS

MONTPELIER, Nov. 3.—Vermont as always went republican, yesterday giving Harding the largest plurality ever given a president—44,391. Senator Dillingham and Congressman Dale and Greene, all Republicans, were re-elected by large pluralities. The vote of the state complete was Harding 64,888; Cox 20,587. James Hartness, Republican, was elected governor by a wide margin.

MASSACHUSETTS GOES FOR HARDING BY 550,000

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The home tut of Governor Coolidge gave to the Republican national ticket on which he was candidate for vice president the overwhelming plurality of more than 550,000 yesterday.

Boston went republican for the first time in 1896 by a majority of 21,015. Yesterday it went republican for the second time by 70,000. The governor's home city of Northampton which gave Hough only 106 plurality in 1916, gave Harding and Coolidge a plurality of 18,759. All republican congressmen were re-elected, including speaker Gillett, who was unopposed. The republicans also captured two democratic seats. This leaves only two democratic congressmen from the state—Gallivan and Tarr, both from Boston districts. Lieut. Gov. Channing H. Cox, a republican, was elected governor. The republicans gained two seats in the state Senate and made a net gain of 8 seats in the lower branch of the legislature. The vote of the state with 74 precincts missing was Harding 225,072; Cox 254,651. For governor Cox 59,223; Walsh 29,615.

RHODE ISLAND SHOWS G. O. P. LANDSLIDE

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 3.—Rhode Island like the other states established a record in pluralities when it gave Harding a margin over Cox, with only three precincts missing of 52,129. All three republican congressmen were easily re-elected and the Republican state ticket led by Lieut. Governor San Souci for governor went through with trouble.

INVESTIGATE AUTO CRASH IN LYNDON

It has been learned that the Ford car in which W. H. Jeffery found wedged between a tree and a culvert near Lyndonville Sunday night was driven by Rev. Watkins of Windsor, who in company with another man hired the car the middle of last week to go to the northern part of the state. The two men arrived in Windsor Tuesday morning none the worse for the mishap, which resulted in the car being turned turtle. They gave no reason for the abandonment of the car and the secretary of state's office is investigating the accident.

REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE

election was spelled by the returns while about a half dozen of the 19 Democratic candidates were battling against Republican leads.

The last trial of woman suffrage contributed largely to the Republican majorities and was a factor in delaying the count in many states. Senator Harding accepted his victory without exultation stating that he was "more given to prayer to God to make me capable of playing my part." To Governor Coolidge, the new vice-president, he sent a message saying "We've got a hard job and we'll tackle it together." Governor Cox also received his defeat without untoward show of feeling. He withheld any comment after remaining at his new paper office at Danvers until almost midnight and sending his own paper issue an early accounting of his defeat. Senator Harding, with the receipt of the ballot tallies on his 55th birthday announced plans for a vacation beginning next Friday. He will spend several days near Brownsville, Texas and then tour the Panama Canal zone. Governor Cox is planning a vacation on a hunting trip in Mississippi.

In California where Senator Phelan Democrat was trailing far behind Samuel Shortridge, Republican, and with Senator Harting ever further ahead on the ticket, adoption of the Alton Land Law amendment relating to the Japanese land tenure had a wide majority. Of the democrats, Senator Underwood of Alabama minority leader, was re-elected. Congressmen five changes in committee chairmen are expected to result in either Senate or House.

ACADEMY NOTES

At the chapel exercises Tuesday evening an exercise was held to emphasize the duties and privilege of citizenship. Miss Katherine Comant spoke for Candidate Harding. Miss Lillian Martin spoke of the big issues of the present administration. Miss Bushnell spoke of the personal record of Candidate Cox and Shores made a plan for the support of the democratic candidate. Mr. Ingalls related some of his experiences in a ship building plant through the war and Principal Wilson spoke of the work of the S. T. A. C. in the war. A straw vote was then taken resulting as follows: Watkins, 11; Cox, 76; Harding 210. The exercises closed with three cheers for Senator Hart.
